

Proposed Roadway Characteristics

- The cities and county adopt land use plans. ACHD is developing a master street plan to support those land uses.
- The Livable Streets Design Guide and Roadway Characteristics map propose road features appropriate for the adjacent land uses.
- The map also shows locations of current and future collectors. A well connected collector network provides drivers with route choices.

